ORDER:

In the reference 2nd read above, the First Addl.Special Judge for SPE and ACB Cases City Civil Courts, Hyderabad in its judgment in C.C.No.15/2008, dated;23-04-2014 held that the evidence placed by the prosecution in this case falls far short of this requirement of establishment the facts beyond reasonable doubt and the prosecution seems to have felt complacent with some facts of creating a ray of suspicion on A1 to A3 which cannot be equated with the proved facts in a criminal trial. Under those circumstances, A1 to A3 are entitled to seek a strong benefit of doubt in their favour for the offences arraigned against them. Hence, the court found that A1 to A3 are not guilty for the offences and accordingly acquitted them. In view of the above judgment of the ACB court, it may be stated that A2, i.e., Sri.Y.Venkata Surya Nagendra Narsinga Rao, Senior Assistant was acquitted on benefit of doubt.

2. In the G.O.3rd read above, orders were issued to drop further action against Sri Y.V.S.N.Narasinga Rao, formerly Senior Assistant O/o Addl. District Medical & Health Officer, Rampachodavaram , East Godavari District presently working in the O/o RDM&HS, Rajahmundry, as he was acquitted in C.C.No.15/2008.
